

SCENE#
1

Analyzing accomplishments is a job-interview setting.

SCENE#
2

We'll see answers to same interview question followed by critique of each one.

- DESCRIPTION OF LEARNING/INSTRUCTIONAL GOAL: Learners will be able to identify criteria that contribute to effective accomplishment stories
- SINGLE OBJECTIVE TIED TO GOAL: Learners will analyze raw accomplishments based on criteria.

SCENE#
3

Interviewer: Please describe the accomplishment you are most proud of.

Interviewer: Please describe the accomplishment you are most proud of.

SCENE#
4

I won the county science fair when I was in high school.

I won the county science fair when I was in high school.

SCENE#
5

—
Accomplishment is not recent.

Accomplishment is not recent.

SCENE#
6

—
I helped save the company a lot of money during its digital transformation.

I helped save the company a lot of money during its digital transformation.

SCENE#
7

—
Accomplishment is measurable but lacks metrics.

---

Accomplishment is measurable but lacks metrics.

SCENE#
8

—
I've been consistently praised for my performance as a sales manager.

---

I've been consistently praised for my performance as a sales manager.

SCENE#
9

—
Accomplishment
refers to ongoing success rather than specific accomplishment.

Accomplishment refers to ongoing success rather than specific accomplishment.

SCENE#
10

—
My team completed its biggest project on time and under budget

My team completed its biggest project on time and under budget.

SCENE#
11

—
Team role unclear.
How is this YOUR accomplishment?

---

Team role unclear. How is this YOUR accomplishment?

SCENE# 12

—
Graduating from college.

---

Graduating from college.

SCENE #
13

A 'so what?'
accomplishment
because graduation
does not distinguish job-seeker.

A 'so what?' accomplishment because graduation does not distinguish job-seeker.

SCENE #
14

I took care of my grandmother in the months leading up to her death.

I took care of my grandmother in the months leading up to her death.

SCENE

15

—
Outside the realm of the professional and may not be relevant to targeted job.

Outside the realm of the professional and may not be relevant to targeted job.

SCENE

16

—
How do YOUR accomplishment
statements stack up?

How do YOUR accomplishments stack up?